Sinister Move By The Educational Board Proves Organized Conspiracy To Relegate Race To South Through Well Constructed Program Of Action

Washington Tribune.
WASHINGTON, D. C.—There seems to be a general concerted action by men of money and influence to keep the colored man subdued and subjected to living in the southern section of this country. This has been brought to light in more ways than one and has led to reaching influence through our schools and colleges.

Howard University Medical School. Miss Harrie J. Sullivan, of San Antonio, Texas, Dr. Sullivan applied for and received a $1,200 scholarship given by Julius Rosenwald, through the General Educational Board of New York City, to further the study of medicine at ARI. Dr. Sullivan was interviewed and found that she could enter Freedmen's Hospital as an internist and she asked that the scholarship be deferred until after she had finished her internship, which would only be for a year. In the first of July she completed her internship at the hospital, being the first woman to do so. She was then admitted to such capacity during the history of the hospital.

In May she applied for the scholarship to be used this year, from the General Educational Board. There were three other doctors who applied for scholarships to the General Education Board this year: Dr. W. C. Johnson, now an interne at Freedmen's Hospital; Dr. P. C. Cook, and Dr. Hightower, of this city. Each of These young physicians received a letter from the President, Dr. Abraham Flexner, of the General Educational Board, to the effect that they were ineligible unless they were going to practice in the South.

While Dr. Sullivan's home is in San Antonio, she is thinking of practicing in the "Middle West" as she stated in a recent letter to the Woman's Journal.

Sutton said: "I do not know. Justification where, I will leave to pursue my profession; and do not feel that we should be bound by obligating ourselves to practice in any certain section of this country where, because of being the 'home of the free,' I send his legation on to my father for his consideration but do not think that I shall press that

Dr. Julius Rosenwald poses as a great friend to colored people and is a trustee of Tuskegee Institute. He decided to offer scholarships for colored graduates in medicine to take up "fundamental medicine" with the provision that the one receiving the scholarship must agree to participate in the South.

THE American people are being spread through our educational institutions by making gifts with strings to them. "The invisible" governing power of our schools is reaching far wider influence through a conspiracy to hold the race in the South than the average layman realizes. This power also loses a link in the chain that is being forged by "the powers

The director of the Summer School was told after a conference that the committee had no objection to coming to the balls and the matter ended. The committee of students in the summer school enjoying all the get-togethers terminated by the school.

The new director of the Harvard Summer School is Mr. John Murray Tucker. It is reported that he judges the students in this school to be more intelligent Harvard happening. It has not been decided whether Mr. Tucker is a Southerner or not.

There is a current rumor that the Japanese are going to use their new super-Dreadnoughts for pirate parties.

If Mr. Taft will remember that we are not a child race it might help him to become a first rate Chief Justice.

On April 11 last, Mrs. Annie Allen, 63, of 1515 Morgan street, was murdered and buried in her home. Her throat was cut. At former's trial, George Johnson was a witness, but, was not suspected of the crime. Later he confessed that he committed the crime to Captain Stinger and again to Circuit Attorney Bidder, in the presence of others. Bowman's Cotton Blossoms
At The Booker Washington

Bowman's "Cotton Blossoms," presenting "Deary Day," have a well-constructed vehicle for management at the Booker Washington Theatre this week. The comedy is original, but centers on an old theme, "A Fool and His Money." W. Howard Bowman appears as the owner of a stranded shoe trapper, the money being badly in need of money. He runs upon one "Mr. Pasquetti," played by Lester White, who has plenty of green and yellow backs and who is really intended to "buy the company." The scheme and the intrigue used to get the coin furnish plenty of cause for the comedy and the audience is kept in a happy mood. There are no scenes. The entrance to a railroad station and a rare truck where "Pasquetti" gets all his money on an "Also-Plan."

The song and dance numbers are gracefully and artistically presented. Mr. Bowman, who still retains his excellent voice, sings in a manner rendering "Honeydew" and "I Careful He Also Appears with the company in "Deary Day." In "Deary Day," "Makes You Mind," and the closing piece, "I'm Not Nothing" Ed Matt, who, who is in the "Cotton Blossoms," "Jazz My Way Through," supported by the company. Lester White, who is in the "Cotton Blossoms," "Jazz My Way Through," supported by the company. Lester White, who is in the "Cotton Blossoms," "Jazz My Way Through," supported by the company.

Buddy Austin's Players
Buddy Austin's Players, a large company, of versatile performers, will give a new comedy, "The Book of the Dead," at the Booker Washington Theatre, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The production is directed by Miss Bridget Galloway, the Prima Donna, and is making a hit on the circuit with the latest craze in musical comedy and plenty of just music.

The stimulation records in the various theatres during the past week show an increase over the previous period. BILL AGAINST LYNCHING ENDORSED BY JUDICIARY COMMITTEE OF CONGRESS

Congressman Madden Feels Assured It Will Easily Pass
House And Senate And Will Be Signed By The President. Other Activities Along The Lines
Of Square Dealing With The Race
Are Encouraging

Associated Negro Press
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 12.—With the Harding administration approaching the half year mark, the people throughout the country are beginning to "take the measure" of the President, and to see whether the "big show" is living up to its promise. In his campaign speeches, and even since his inauguration, Mr. Harding has himself made a record of human rights on the highest level.

There have been some set backs to the expectations of the population, but the people have not been disappointed. The President has given assurance to those who have recently demanded matters with him, that he will keep the faith. Congressman Melvin B. Madden, of the first district of Illinois, in Chicago, has been the Associated Negro Press that the bill against lynching has been introduced by the Judiciary Committee of the House, and that the same will soon be reported to the House. It is Congressman Madden's opinion that the bill will easily pass the House and Senate, and that the President will sign it.

Congressman Tinkham continues to force the issue on the population, to insist to enforce the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments. Floor leader Melvin B. Madden has done all in his power to block the consideration, but without success. Many Congressmen still are growing in favor of looking into the subject. Many Congressmen still are growing in favor of looking into the subject. Many Congressmen still are growing in favor of looking into the subject.

The appointment of Henry Lewis Johnson, as Recorder of Deeds has opened up a big new line of discussion. Mr. Johnson, has all along, indicated that he did not wish a position. However, it is understood that the administration regarded Johnson, as the "one best" to fulfill the administrative policy of segregation, which has sometimes been wandering about on the streets, until the fact has been known that there should be something done.

The next few weeks will without question bring some surprising developments. There are movements on in several cities in several parts of the country calculated to make political circles in all their power sit up and take notice. The Harding administration and the Republican National Committee are cognizant of the facts and will meet the issue with Mumford countered by having Representative Barbour of California, issue a call for a conference on congressional responsibility. Accordingly, Representative Tamm, of Iowa, chairman of the Judiciary conference, convened a caucus to consider both subjects.

Townsend previously had urged that responsibility was germane to enforcement of the Fourteenth Amendment. He felt that enforcement was not germane to responsibility. There was a noisy demonstration against the calling. Mr. Mumford tried to force an adjournment of the conference, but he was outvoted five to one. Then there was an agreement to adjourn to meet later. Mr. Mumford should have Mr. Tinkham agree to majority leader. He was not successful. It was charged that Mumford then held instructions from all anti-lynching in the House be notified that the conference had been canceled. Orders were given the doorkeepers to close the chamber of the House.

The question raised by Mr. Tinkham is being opposed by Republicans from border states, who declare that the bill is being opposed during the session. The bill is being opposed during the session.

A CALL TO WOMEN

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 14.—A National Convention of dependent Negro Women will be held in Kansas City, Missouri, August 22-27, 1921. We are hoping to make this the most important political gathering since the late war. The convention will be held in the United States. Significant delegations of our colored and white women from all of the states will be in attendance. We shall seek within the ranks of the Republican party to work out those race problems which are hampering the advancement of the Negro. Questions affecting the welfare of our people will be fully discussed. All who come will be given a "bearing."

PRESIDENT ROSS, COLLEGE OF WEST AFRICA, DIES EN ROUTE TO AMERICA

Special To The Argus
NEW YORK, July 12.—The recent arrival in this country of Mrs. Samuel John Ross, widow of the late President of the College of West Africa, Liberia, brings to mind the untimely death of the most useful and versatile leaders of his race. President Ross died on his way to America, en route to America.

During his college career, he achieved these qualities for leadership which have made his name well known among his people of two continents. DEMPSEY DRAWS THE COLOR LINE AGAIN

Associated Negro Press.
OMAHA, Neb., July 13.—I will never fight a colored man, Champion Jack Dempsey said during a short stop over here today on his way to Salt Lake City to visit his parents. "There is nothing in this talk of my meeting Jack Johnson. I am confident the public don't want this fight. Dempsey will never accept it to a large extent according to the public wishes. I can see why you are so sure of it, but I am sure you are wrong. I will meet any one that Kenzie picks for me, fribbons. I understand it is a good man, although I never have seen him. As I have drawn the color line, I am free to say that I think Harry Wills is a great fighter, one who will give the very best of it. You know as much about Johnson as I do, for William T. Hearst hit him any time—and lick him, too."

AUTO SCHOOL FOR NEGROES NOW OPEN AT 3100-2 PINE ST.

This school has installed a large and complete equipment for the express purpose of providing mechanical training of the strictest requirements in the Automobile Industry.

The improved method of practical training, and properly supervised, by Master Mechanic Instructors are the best and most practical to be found anywhere in the country.

Mr. D. L. Dearing, the founder of this school, has had experience in the early years as a school man, the great necessity and demand of such school, as the colored man was barred from these schools, depriving him from bettering his condition and becoming a better paid man.

The demand for Practical Trained Negro Mechanics is due to the great growth of the Automobile and Tractor business, and acute shortage of Trained Mechanics to maintain and operate this extensive Automobile equipment.

Therefore, opportunity is here to better the condition of the Negro, and his earning power.

INTERESTING REPORT OF BOSTON URBAN LEAGUE

BOSTON, July 13.—Matthew W. Black, Executive Secretary of the Boston Urban League presented at the League's annual meeting in Boston a summary of the year's activities of this organization which has aroused considerable interest in far-reaching social work in the city.

The League has during the year conducted many other agencies in bringing to the colored citizens a larger amount of social service, than has been conducted among the colored people during the previous year. An industrial survey was made which brought to light some startling facts: The Negro population in 1916 numbered 15,000 persons was represented in 121 industries. This survey to be an excellent showing until further analysis showed that 21 industries employed 1 Negro each, as against 5 each, 85 less than 10 each and 52 less than 20 each. According to this State Census the Negro was poorly represented in the skilled trades, there being 7 mechanics, 7 cabinet makers, 17 brick and stone masons, 8 carpenters, 31 machinists. It stood low in electrical engineers, 42 stationary engineers, 31 machinists and millwrights, 21 bakers and tailors. The colored citizens and shoemakers, 30 enterers and 40 painters and glaziers. The following industries did not employ even one: Car and railroad road shops, electrical and cable industries, cigar and tobacco factories, glass and mechanical, light and power, printing, electric supply factories, food canning and packing industries, fruit and grain mills, fruit and vegetable canning factories, sugar factories, and rubberies.

It was found that 68 per cent of the colored women were employed in industrial occupations while only 20 per cent of foreign-born women and 35 per cent of the native white women were employed. The girls among white and females are in the mental and unskilled occupations. The League therefore, felt itself justified in making the following efforts: 1—to increase the number of plants where the average family as a whole can find employment; 2—to pay more attention to the preparation of colored children for commercial in skilled trades; 3—to further activities looking toward increasing the income of the colored family as a whole; 4—to assist more mothers to remain at home to look after the interest of their children; 5—to make that delivery more and more and more life raised to a higher standard.

During the year the League conducted an employment bureau and secured the appointment of a new member of the board of directors in connection with colored boys who are members of the Central Y. M. C. A. This board club is gradually improving in its skill and competition with other boys' clubs in the community's athletic and recreational contests. In the first competition, this club was in the last place during the last competition. It finished second in its other boys' clubs competition. The colored secretary of the Y. M. C. A. staff is Benjamin F. Selden.

The League has sought to improve the condition of the colored people among the people of South End by paying particular attention to the needs and wishes of the colored people who have been made to the health department. Special attention has been given to the needs of the colored people in the need of inadequate families have been made to the health department.
